Nebbiolo Rosé 2007

The makeup of Nebbiolo reflects high acid and tannin as well as a very aromatic bouquet. These features together with the fact that our vines still do not have enough age to make a full bodied red, lend themselves to a very nice rosé wine.

The bouquet is fragrant with rose, cherry and pomegranate. The palate is taut and racy with watermelon, prune, fruit punch and underlying earthy characters. There is some upfront fruit sweetness that is balanced with a firm and sophisticated finish. An excellent summer food wine, and a lovely light aperitif.
