

2008 Stefano Lubiana Pinot Grigio

"Savoury, dry and nutty, with a spicy, almost brioche-like bouquet of pear, apple and melon backed by hints of cloves and cinnamon, this, generous, round and creamy grigio style delivers a long, smooth palate with a slightly meaty finish punctuated by zippy acids and finishing with a lingering cashew-like note.(16.9/89, YTD 2010-2013)."

Jeremy Oliver – www.jeremyoliver.com.au
Tasting notes 14/05/2009

"...savoury and relatively austere showing pear and apricot with some nutty, brown spice and musk aspects, soft chalky lemon acids ()"

http://www.genxywines.com/regions/tas_regions/southtasmania/stefanolubiana.html

Graham Hastings - GENXYWINES
July 2009