

2010 Stefano Lubiana
Primavera Chardonnay *1/2

The Primavera label is Stefano Lubiana's entry-level, everyday drinking range. I'd be happy to drink this every day, too, it's a cracker. Pure aromas of nectarine, grapefruit, cantaloupe rind, struck match and a hint of attractive funk are replicated with great intensity on the palate. It has a lovely texture and driving grapefruit-flavoured acidity that balanced the flavours well. Add to that a persistent finish and this is a wine worth seeking out.
