

<http://chrisshanahan.com/>

2008 Stefano Lubiana Collina $60

“WOW! We decanted Collina a couple of hours before enjoying it, slowly, with a meal. It’s an extraordinary chardonnay, giving more weight to my belief that our finest chardonnays are destined to come from Tasmania.

“An intensity of varietal fruit flavours (grapefruit and white peach), both generous and ethereally fine, put this in the top ranks of Australian barrel-ferment and matured chardonnays. Winemaker Steven Lubiana says the vineyard site is rocky and gravelly, “providing plenty of sun, and just enough miserable soil for a plant to put down its roots and maintain a tenuous grip on life.

“It’s available at www.slw.com.au...”

Chris Shanahan
Canberra Times Relax Magazine
Also <http://chrisshanahan.com/>
January 22nd, 2012