

2010 Stefano Lubiana Sauvignon Blanc

"The area of vineyard control is one area where smaller wine producers like Stefano Lubiana can win out and that comes through in his 2010 Sauvignon Blanc.

The wine has a richness, both in flavour and feel on the palate. It strikes the right balance between fruit and acid, which allows tropical fruits to emerge before a refreshing tangy citrus finish...

So much sauvignon blanc has a sameness about it. The 2010 Stefano Lubiana Sauvignon Blanc is a standout."
